

'Encounter with a Scottish Mythical Creature' Writing and Art Competition

Imagine you met a Scottish mythical creature one day!
Where would it live? What would it look and sound like?
Would it be scary or friendly? Would it have any magical powers?

For Pupils in P1-P3:

- Draw a picture of an encounter with the creature using any art materials you like - the brighter the better!

For Pupils in P4-P7:

EITHER:

- Draw a picture of an encounter with the creature as above,

OR:

- Write a short story of up to 500 words of an encounter with the creature. Remember to use interesting descriptive words to build up atmosphere.

RULES:

- Competition is open to pupils in P1-P7
- One entry per pupil [For P4-P7 pupils, EITHER a piece of art OR writing]
- Postal entries & scans must arrive by the closing date: Friday 7th June
- Winners will be announced on Wednesday 12th June

PRIZES:

P1-P3

- The winning entry from each year will receive a copy of Alan Dapré's book 'Grizzly Ben' for their class.

P4-P7

- The winning entry from each year will receive a half hour online author session with the following authors for their class:

- P4: David Macphail P5: Barbara Henderson P6: Lindsay Littleton
P7: Victoria Williamson

For details of how to submit entries,
please email: KidlitScotland@gmail.com

